

Jennifer Manegold, Ph.D.

Expert in organizational behavior at Florida Gulf Coast University

Fort Myers, FL, US

Jennifer Manegold studies the workplace with a focus on civility, mentorship and team building.

Biography

Jennifer Manegold, Ph.D., is an associate professor and chair of the Department of Management at Florida Gulf Coast University. She recently launched the Southwest Florida Leadership Institute, designed to help employees gain particular skills to support their long-term career goals. Manegold's research focuses on organizational justice, human-resource management and the study of effective interpersonal relationships (including mentoring and teams).

Areas of Expertise

Mentoring, Civility, Team Building, Management & Leadership, Organizational Communication, Organizational Behavior and Leadership, Work and Family Linkages, Organizational Justice

Affiliations

Academy of Management : Member, Southern Management Association : Reviewer, Human Resource Management Journal : Reviewer, Human Relations Journal : Reviewer, Journal of Education for Business : Editorial Board Member

Selected Event Appearances

A social network perspective on the pluralistic ignorance of family-friendly benefits
Southern Management Association Conference

Narrowing gender pay gap by fostering commitment of women in the workplace: Evidence from Southeast Asia
Academy of International Business

How ethical leadership relates to conflict and turnover intentions: A relational systems approach
Southern Management Association Conference

Education

The University of Texas at Arlington
Ph.D. Business Management

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin
M.B.A. Management

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin
B.A. Communications and English

Accomplishments

40 under 40

Presented by Gulfshore Business magazine.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.