

Jerome Jewell

Founder/President at Jewell Consulting Group

Washington, DC, US

Founder - Jewell Consulting Group - Strategic Advisor

Biography

Jerome's background includes two decades with global industry leaders, including IBM and Chase Manhattan Bank, where he developed operations and marketing expertise in the airline, banking, systems integration and satellite telecommunication sectors. In 1995 he formed Jewell Consulting Group, a management consulting firm helping organizations improve productivity and leadership. He has provided consulting, executive coaching and leadership training to a broad range of clients, including NASA, AMGEN, Lucent Technologies, the United Nations, COMCAST and the U.S Department of Homeland Security. Jerome's work has taken him to France, Greece, Argentina, Mexico, Hungary, Belgium, the U.K, Canada and Bermuda and he has conducted considerable primary research in higher education, financial services, professional sports management and national defense. He has scaled Mt. Kilimanjaro and Mt. Rainier, run the Marine Corps Marathon, swum the Alcatraz Challenge in San Francisco Bay twice and broken bread in another 11 nations...all part of his outlook. Jerome coaches Executive MBA and MBA students at Columbia Business School, has coached in Georgetown University's MBA Program and is a former faculty member at Howard University's MBA Program, the AMA and Management Centre Europe - Brussels. As a storyteller, Jerome draws upon all the above, providing clients with inspiration and concrete guidance in solving their most difficult problems. . He has an MBA from Columbia University and continues to study Spanish, French and German. He's certified in the Emotional Competency Inventory, a 360-degree assessment tool developed by Dr. Daniel Goleman (author of "Emotional Intelligence?"), to help leaders understand and improve their emotional intelligence. His Passions: - Asking Better Questions - Systemic Thinking - Seeing Potential When Others See Empty Space - High-Performance Teambuilding - Foreign Language and Culture - Continuing when Others Quit

Availability

Keynote, Panelist, Workshop, Corporate Training

Industry Expertise

Corporate Leadership, Professional Training and Coaching, Management Consulting

Areas of Expertise

Organizational Effectiveness, Inspiring People to Achieve Uncommon Results

Affiliations

World Affairs Challenge at University of Denver., NY. Construction volunteer at Habitat for Humanity. Annual volunteer judge, African-American Alumni Association at Columbia University Business School, U.S-Mexico Chamber of Commerce (New York and Denver Chapters). Member, Rotary Club, Former member Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

Education

City University of New York City College
B.A Sociology and Communications

University of Pennsylvania - The Wharton School
Executive Education Leadership and Relationship Building

Center for Bilingual Multicultural Studies, Cuernavaca, Mexico
Spanish

Columbia University - Columbia Business School
MBA International Business and Marketing

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.