

Jessica Bianchi

Assistant Professor of Marital & Family Therapy/Art Therapy at Loyola Marymount University
Los Angeles, CA, US

Assistant Professor & HBL Art Therapy Clinic Director

Biography

Dr. Jessica Bianchi is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, Board Certified Art therapist, Assistant Professor at Loyola Marymount University, and the Clinical Director of the Helen B. Landgarten Art Therapy Clinic. Having received her doctorate in Educational Leadership and Social Justice as well as her master's in Marital and Family Therapy/Art Therapy from LMU, Jessica has developed a specialized skill set that integrates concepts from art therapy and education as a way to promote social justice and community activism amongst diverse populations. Jessica thrives on collaboration and has facilitated therapeutic arts services in numerous contexts including residential group homes, outpatient clinics, K-high school settings, medical centers, and federal correctional institutions as well as providing consultation and professional development on the topics of art therapy, trauma informed educational practices, and arts and social emotional competencies. Additionally, Jessica also provides clinical services in her Silver Lake private practice with adults, youth and couples experiencing anxiety, depression, life transitions, grief, and trauma.

Education

Loyola Marymount University
M.A. Marital and Family Therapy

Arizona State University
B.A. Art History and Cultural Anthropology

Loyola Marymount University
Ed.D. Educational Leadership and Social Justice

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.