Syndication Attorney

Jillian Sidoti of the Law Office of Trowbridge, Taylor & Sidoti is the expert on money raising techniques for real estate companies. After working in commercial real estate doing condo conversions for many years, Jillian started a firm that specializes in securities transactional legal matters such as Private Placement Memorandums, SEC compliance, Regulation A filings, Direct Public Offerings, and Intrastate Offerings. Specializing in transactional legal matters, Jillian Sidoti can assist clients who are looking to raise private money legally. Jillian also spends her time speaking at seminars educating real estate investors on how to legally raise capital for their real estate investment projects. Prior to her legal career, Jillian owned and operated a record label enabling her to tour worldwide with artists, including visits to South Africa, Canada, Europe, and the United States. Using that experience, Jillian has been commissioned to write articles and contracts for many music industry entities. Currently, Jillian teaches Finance and Accounting for the BS and MBA programs at the University of Redlands, drawing on her experience as Financial Analyst, Controller, and CFO for many companies from manufacturing to real estate development. Jillian also teaches a Small Business Management class where students are taught the anatomy of a business plan.
