

John Beck

Associate Professor of Human Resources & Labor Relations at Michigan State University

East Lansing, MI, US

John Beck is a union and labor relations expert

Biography

John Beck previously served as associate director of the School of Labor Relations, primarily in charge of two of the school's outreach units, the Labor Education Program and Union Management Initiatives. He also co-directs a project "Building Mutual Expectations and Resolving Conflicts in Graduate Education," on the use of interest-based conflict resolution approaches for graduate students and their faculty mentors. Beck has taught labor studies on the community college level in both Oklahoma and Michigan and has taught history and education courses at the university level.

Industry Expertise

Human Resources, Education/Learning, Writing and Editing

Areas of Expertise

Labor Organization, Workforce Development, Labor History, American Labor Movements

Affiliations

Associate Member, United Steelworkers of America

Education

Oklahoma State University

Doctoral Coursework History and Curriculum/Instruction

University of Michigan

Masters of Arts Adult and Continuing Education with Certificate in Industrial Relations

Accomplishments

Excellence in Diversity Award; Team Award (with Yvonne Lockwood of the MSU Museum) for Sustained Effort toward Excellence in Diversity

2003 Michigan State University

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.