Johnny coached my Financial Freedom online course and one on one coaching two years ago. It was a necessary combo as Johnny kept me accountable to building the foundation for my financial freedom. I learned how to set up my plan for freedom. Two years later and I'm completely debt-free have significantly simplified my expenses and am building a huge freedom retirement account. I now have enough to start investing and have learned how to make large capital gains and cash flow through investing. I'm on a plan to stop working in at least 5 years (hopefully sooner) where I'll grow my capital to 10s of millions I'm 40 years old now and only wish I would have taken this training when I was 18.

I was on a mentorship/coaching program with Mr John Ball over a period of 1 year. It was a game-changer for me and my business. He was superb at working on my mindset and kept me on track with the required actions. I took on one of the most challenging tasks in my career and that became a stepping stone to other major endeavours. He was able to ask the right questions that point to some crucial details which someone might have easily overlooked, and that made a whole load of difference. Apart from inspiring me to take actions, one of the other most helpful aspects was his coaching affirms the decisions I were about to make every time. I would highly recommend his coaching service because he is professional, very well-versed and knowledgeable on all major aspects of business and is also highly capable of bringing any willing client to the next level! Two Thumbs Up!
