

Judi Shade Monk

Instructional Assistant Professor at University of Florida

Gainesville, FL, US

Judi Shade Monk leverages over two decades of cross-disciplinary architectural practice in her collaborative, policy, and research efforts.

Biography

Judi Shade Monk is a registered architect in Florida, New Jersey and New York. She has been a LEED accredited professional since 2006. The continuing education she seeks in order to maintain those credentials includes sustainability and resilience. Her research interests include practice-informed studio instruction and pedagogy, color theory in the Josef Albers tradition, detailing, cross-disciplinary collaboration and the education of non-architects on the role and value of the profession. Judi's area of focus is sustainability through building energy, building materials, built environment resilience, smart buildings/cities, sustainable architecture and design and sustainable construction.

Industry Expertise

Architecture and Planning, Construction - Commercial, Construction - Residential

Areas of Expertise

Qualitative Design, Material Evaluation, Design Communication, Design Thinking, Color Theory and Relativity, Architectural Design, LEED Buildings, #MeToo, Architecture, Construction, Building Codes, Green Building, Women in STEM, Municipal Planning, Sustainability, Architectural Practice, Construction Management, Design Pedagogy, Gender Issues, Material Selection

Affiliations

Registered Architect : Florida, New Jersey, & New York, NCARB Certified, LEED Accredited Professional

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.