

Julie Manning Magid

Professor of Business Law at Kelley School of Business at Indiana University

Indianapolis, IN, US

Julie Manning Magid is an expert in leadership and business law, focusing on social impact, innovation, and inclusion.

Biography

Julie Manning Magid is a professor of business law at the Kelley School of Business in Indianapolis. Magid also is the Executive & Academic Director of the Randall L. Tobias Center for Leadership Excellence at Indiana University. Her areas of expertise include leadership development, board leadership, workplace culture (including innovation, diversity and inclusion), employment contracts and restrictive covenants, social impact and privacy and ethics. Magid served as the Editor in Chief of the American Business Law Journal Volume 56 and is currently Advisory Editor in Chief. In addition, she is a Kelley Venture Fellow and the Life Sciences Research Fellow for the Center for the Business of Life Sciences. Magid received her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and her A.B. from Georgetown University. She is the author of numerous scholarly articles and book chapters focused on public policy related to health care, gender, innovation and privacy. She has published this research in journals including the American Business Law Journal, North Carolina Law Review and the University of Pennsylvania Business Law Journal. She also is a textbook co-author of The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business (17th & 18th editions). Professor Magid is recognized for her teaching in the undergraduate, graduate, specialized graduate and online teaching environments, with numerous teaching awards, including the Kelley School of Business MBA Teaching Excellence Award and the Schuyler F. Otteson Undergraduate Teaching Excellence Award. Her teaching received international recognition from the Academy of Legal Studies in Business as the overall winner of the Charles M. Hewitt Master Teacher Award. Magid addresses audiences around the country on issues of inclusive leadership.

Industry Expertise

Corporate Leadership, Public Policy, Education/Learning, Research, Program Development

Areas of Expertise

Workplace Gender and Inclusion Issues, Innovation and Privacy Law, Privacy and Ethics, Executive and Board Leadership, Leadership Development, Employment Contracts and Restrictive Covenants

Secondary Titles

Executive and Academic Director of the Randall L. Tobias Center for Leadership Excellence, Kelley Venture Fellow

Education

University of Michigan
JD

Georgetown University
AB

Accomplishments

Editor-in-Chief, American Business Law Journal, Volume 56

2018 The American Business Law Journal is a quarterly, highly selective journal publishing manuscripts that analyze legal and ethical issues affecting business across the globe.

Teaching Recognition

Magid has received numerous teaching awards in her time at the Kelley School of Business, including the Kelley School MBA Teaching Excellence Award and the Schuyler F. Otteson Undergraduate Teaching Excellence Award. Her teaching also received international recognition from the Academy of Legal Studies in Business as the overall winner of the Charles M. Hewitt Master Teacher Award.

Life Sciences Research Fellow

2008 Awarded by the Center for the Business of Life Science.

Best Conference Paper Award

2012 Awarded by the Pacific Southwest Academy of Legal Studies in Business.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.