Biography

From a very young age, I have always had an entrepreneurial spirit that led way to winning friends, closing deals, and influencing people. Utilizing my knowledge, charisma, and technical know-how, I've started 3 online businesses, including a laser manufacturing and resale business and an entertainment company with a focus on club promotion and networking. At present, I'm helping local small business owners grow their businesses through my company, Nitrox Marketing Solutions. We partner with our clients to achieve the business success of their dreams, by creative effective online systems to drive traffic and convert visitors into sales.
