Rebecca Steinberg Herson

Karen is extremely knowledgeable about social media for businesses. We've worked together on several long term projects for B2B companies and she delivers top quality results. She has developed a strong methodology that works, and she's also flexible in order to meet specific clients' needs. Karen is also really pleasant and fun to work with. A true professional!

Idan Carmeli

I've been working with Karen for the past few months. In her freelance role she manages a couple of my own B2B clients' social accounts. She does so professionally, responsibly, and with the kind of calm reassurance that tends to manifest in people who know they're good at what they do.
