

Kari Lannon, Ph.D.

Associate Faculty - Clinical Psychology at Fielding Graduate University

Virginia Beach, VA, US

Treatment of eating disorders; trauma including childhood sexual abuse; social and developmental bases of behavior

Biography

Kari Lannon, PhD received her master's in Psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary, and went on for a doctorate in Clinical Psychology at Fielding Graduate University in 2013. Dr. Lannon specializes in developmental and cognitive-behavioral psychotherapy, including play therapy and treatment of eating disorders. She has conducted research in the relationship between childhood sexual abuse and eating problems in youths and teens, and has spoken at the Crimes Against Children Conference in Dallas, TX. Dr. Lannon is an adjunct faculty member in the School of Psychology at Fielding Graduate University.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Mental Health Care, Research, Training and Development

Areas of Expertise

Psychopathology, Cognitive-Behavioral Psychotherapy, Play Therapy, Health Psychology, Psychological Assessment, Social and Emotional Learning, Trauma Including Childhood Sexual Abuse, Eating Disorders, Cognitive and Affective Bases of Behavior, Social Bases of Behavior, Developmental Bases of Behavior, Spirituality

Affiliations

American Psychological Association (APA) : Member, Virginia Psychological Association (VPA) : Member, Christian Association for Psychological Studies (CAPS) : Member, American Association of Christian Counselors : Member

Event Appearances

Childhood Sexual Abuse and Eating Problems in 8-, 12-, and 14-year-old Females from the Longitudinal Studies of Child Abuse and Neglect (LONGSCAN)
(August, 2014) American Psychological Association Conference

ComplexTrauma in the City: A Social and Emotional Learning Intervention with Youth in a High Risk Urban Environment: Preliminary Study
(April, 2014) International Christian Association for Psychological Studies (CAPS) Conference

Trauma-Focused Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy: Overview of concepts and review of recent research
(August, 2010) Crimes Against Children Conference

Education

Fielding Graduate University
PhD Clinical Psychology

Fuller Theological Seminary
MA Psychology

Seattle Pacific University
BA Psychology, Education

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.