

Karin Fry

Department Chair, Philosophy and Religious Studies at Georgia Southern University
Statesboro, GA, US

Karin Fry is an expert in continental, social and political philosophy as well as the works of Arendt, Lyotard, and Kant.

Biography

Most of Dr. Fry's research examines topics in art, popular culture, religion, and politics. Her current research interests involve the political thought of Hannah Arendt and she serves as the Managing Editor of Arendt Studies. Prior to Georgia Southern University, she taught courses in continental philosophy, politics, and philosophy of art at the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point.

Areas of Expertise

Kant, Feminism, Arendt, Philosophy of Art, 19th and 20th Century Continental Philosophy, Social and Political Philosophy, Public Philosophy, History of Philosophy, Existentialism

Education

The University of Memphis
Ph.D. Philosophy

Boston College
M.A. Philosophy

University of Rhode Island
B.A. Philosophy

Accomplishments

University Scholar Award, University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point
2016

Fellow, International Programs UWSP, London
2012

L&S Faculty and Program Development Grant for research in Arendt Archives at the Library of Congress
2014-15

Philosophy Department Nominee, University Scholar Award, UWSP
2009, 2014, 2015

National Endowment for the Humanities Seminar Grant, "Religious Diversity and the Common Good."
Boston College
2007

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.