Kathy Norwood, Ed.D., PCC

Associate Faculty - Evidence Based Coaching at Fielding Graduate University

Mansfield, MA, US

Bridging educational coaching with the profession of coaching; diversity and structural equality; sustainability

Biography

Kathy Norwood, EdD, PCC, is a K-12 national educational consultant, trainer, coach and founder of Designs for Change. She is certified as a professional coach with the International Coach Federation (ICF) and holds a vision for bridging educational coaching with the profession of coaching. Since 1996, Dr. Norwood has helped school districts nationwide develop and implement customized comprehensive coaching and literacy programs. Kathy provides individual and group coaching to administrators and leadership coaches. She trains groups of educational coaches in evidence-based approaches to coaching. She provides ?Train the Trainer? workshops for teacher leaders and consultants. Dr. Norwood completed her doctorate program in Educational Leadership and Change from Fielding University. Her collaborative dissertation with Dr. Burke was titled: Transformational Coaching in Education: A Collaborative Look at the Bridges and Barriers to Learning. Currently, Kathy continues her national consulting work and teaches for Fielding?s Evidence Based Coaching Program.

Industry Expertise

Program Development, Research, Education/Learning, Training and Development, Professional Training and Coaching, Publishing

Areas of Expertise

Professional Coaching (Using A Variety of Evidence-Based Coaching Models), Systems Theories, Organizational Change, Adult Learning Theories, Neurosciences and Coaching, Implementation and Sustainability, Hegemony in Education, Diversity and Structural Inequality

Accomplishments

Institute for Social Innovation Scholar
Fielding Graduate University, 2011-2012

Dissertation Scholarship
(September, 2012) Fielding Graduate University