

Kaylie Tiessen

Economist and Researcher at Unifor

Toronto, ON, CA

Researching labour markets, social progress and the value of public services.

Biography

Kaylie Tiessen is an economist and a Researcher at Unifor. She focuses on labour markets, employment quality, social progress and the value of Public Services. Kaylie is an active member of the Canadian Economics Association, Canadian Women Economists Network and the Progressive Economics Forum. She's also a member of the Young Scholars Initiative at the Institute for New Economic Thinking and a research associate at the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives.

Industry Expertise

Public Policy, Research, Think Tanks

Areas of Expertise

Labour Economics, Labour Markets, Precarious Work, Policy Analysis, Poverty, Income Inequality, Public Services , Fair Wage/Living Wage, Employment Quality

Affiliations

Progressive Economics Forum, Canadian Economics Association, Young Scholars Initiative, Institute for New Economic Thinking, Canadian Women Economists Network, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, Research Associate, Toronto Sector Skills Academy, Advisory Committee

Event Appearances

Good Jobs Debate

Good Jobs Summit

Labour Market Insecurity in Canada

Piecing Together a Paradigm, Institute for New Economic Thinking Young Scholars Initiative

Education

Dalhousie University

Master of Development Economics Economics

Lakehead University
Honours Business Commerce International Business

Conestoga College
Management Studies Business Administration

Accomplishments

Top 20 under 35 Young Professionals Changing the World
2015 Recipient

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.