

Keith Gary

Director of Program Development at Kansas City Area Life Sciences Institute

Kansas City, MO, US

Trained neuroscientist that moved from academia to leveraging regional life sciences assets for economic development.

Biography

Prior to present position, held dual appointments in the Departments of Pharmacology and Psychiatry at the University of Connecticut Health Center as Assistant Professor and Director of Basic Science Laboratories. Served as an Assistant Professor of Psychiatry at Dartmouth Medical School in Hanover, NH Received postdoctoral training at the Department of Psychiatry, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Philadelphia, PA. Received NIH Neuropsychopharmacology Fellowship Prior to returning to graduate school, worked five years in dialysis and transplantation at Saint Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, MO

Availability

Keynote, Moderator, Panelist, Author Appearance

Industry Expertise

Training and Development, Biotechnology, Research

Areas of Expertise

Biotechnology and Economic Development, Science Education and Workforce Development, Neuropeptides

Affiliations

Kansas City Area Life Sciences Institute

Sample Talks

Regional Life Sciences Initiative - Creating Innovative Training Approaches

An overview of life sciences efforts in the Kansas City region to provide context for a description of the development of an innovative entry-level biomanufacturing certification course.

Accomplishments

Young Investigator Award National Alliance for Research on Schizophrenia and Affective Disorders
National Alliance for Research on Schizophrenia and Affective Disorders

Alumni Achievement Award, University of Missouri-Kansas City

Elected to Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society

Young Investigator Award
National Alliance for Research on Schizophrenia and Affective Disorders

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.