Director at Kevin Aspin (Training Speakers) Ltd

Manchester, , GB

Interactive, charismatic Personal/Business Development Speaker, Chartered Surveyor, Real Estate Trainer and Liife Coach and Mentor

Biography

Kevin is a popular and experienced public speaker and trainer specialising in a number of different areas from Real Estate, Personal and Business Development to Motivational Coaching. Kevin combines his personal work experience with comedy and audience interaction to bring a lively presentation/training course. Kevin has extensive public sector experience and as a consequence has been able to coach many public authorities through difficult times to enable them to review their business models in a positive way. By working with them through his inevitable, charismatic style has helped them approach the future in a creative way. Changing the mindset and embracing challenges is what Kevin encourgaes his audiences to do and he often gets good results. Enabling the audience to view things differently breeds success and positive vision. Kevin is actively involved with running his son's junior football club and part of his motivational coaching techniques has enabled the team to approach games with a more positive focus (to compliment their footballing abilities) and be successful. Kevin will always engage with his audience at whatever level and is happy to speak/train/coach anywhere!! Look forward to hearing from you soon!!
