

Kirsten Fermaglich

Associate Professor at Michigan State University

East Lansing, MI, US

An expert in American Jewish history, American memory of the Holocaust, and American antisemitism

Biography

Kirsten Fermaglich has been teaching history and Jewish Studies at Michigan State since 2001. Her interests center around the historical meanings and problematic nature of ethnic identity in the United States. She is particularly interested in secular Jews as both members of and outsiders to the Jewish community. Fermaglich is also interested in the ways that gender, race, class, and family intersect with ethnic identity.

Areas of Expertise

Ethnic History, Antisemitism in the US, Immigration History

Event Appearances

Schuler's Authors Night

Okemos

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.