

Lance Hunter, PhD

Professor of Political Science at Augusta University

Augusta, GA, US

Dr. Lance Hunter studies the connection between terrorism and political stability in democracies.

Biography

Hunter is an assistant professor of political science with a background in international relations. His research focuses on how terrorist attacks influence politics in democratic countries and how political decisions within countries affect conflicts worldwide. His work has appeared in journals such as: Journal of Peace Research, Terrorism and Political Violence, Party Politics, Studies in Conflict and Terrorism, Armed Forces and Society, Conflict, Security and Development, and the International Journal of Data Analysis Techniques and Strategies. Hunter teaches courses in international relations, security studies, and research methods. He received his PhD in Political Science from Texas Tech University in 2011.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Politics, Terrorism, International Relations, Voting, Civil Liberties

Affiliations

Augusta University Political Science Club : Co-Advisor, Augusta University ONE Organization : Advisor, Augusta University Cyber Institute: Advisory Committee Member, Augusta University Honors Program: Committee Member

Education

Texas Tech University

Ph.D. Political Science and Government

Texas Tech University

MA Political Science and Government

University of Georgia

MSW Social Work

University of Georgia

BSW Social Work

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.