

Laureen Maines

Executive Associate Dean of Faculty and Research at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business

Bloomington, IN, US

Laureen Maines has published many high-impact articles in the top accounting journals.

Biography

Maines, who holds the KPMG Professorship, has served in the role of Department Chairperson for the Accounting Department since 2010. During that time, she has contributed in many outstanding ways including overseeing the department's faculty hiring efforts, which have resulted in outstanding hires, and leading the school in the AACSB Accounting reaccreditation process. Maines has published many high-impact articles in the top accounting journals, and she has presented her research in the field's top conferences and workshops. On two separate occasions, she has won the Kelley School's outstanding research award. Maines is also an exceptional teacher. In addition to her many teaching award nominations from both the undergraduate and doctoral programs, she won the Trustee Teaching Award in 2006. On the service dimension, Maines has contributed to activities at every level ranging from the department to the school and to the university. She has been equally generous contributing her time to the profession including serving as Editor for The Accounting Review (2008-2011), Associate Editor of Contemporary Accounting Review (2004-2006), and Associate Editor of Advances in Accounting Behavioral Research (1997-1999). Prior to these editor positions, she served on the editorial review boards for these journals along with two other accounting journals (Accounting Horizons and Journal of Management Accounting Research). From 2010-2011, Maines served as the Chair for the American Accounting Association Doctoral Consortium Committee. Yet, this is just one of numerous positions she has held for AAA and Accounting Behavior and Organizations.

Industry Expertise

Financial Services, Business Services, Professional Training and Coaching, Training and Development, Education/Learning, Accounting

Areas of Expertise

Financial Accounting, Managerial Accounting, Behavioural Decision Theory

Secondary Titles

Executive Associate Dean of Faculty and Research, KPMG Professor

Education

University of Chicago

Ph.D. Business Administration

University of Chicago
M.B.A. Accounting and Economics

Indiana University
M.B.A. Finance

Indiana University
B.Sc. Accounting

Accomplishments

KPMG Professorship

2008 Awarded by the Kelley School of Business at the University of Indiana.

Teaching Award

2006 Awarded by the Kelley School of Business Trustees.

PricewaterhouseCoopers Faculty Fellow

2002 Awarded by the Kelley School of Business at the University of Indiana, 2002 - 2008.

Associate Professor Research Award

2001 Awarded by the Kelley School of Business at the University of Indiana in 2001 and 2003.

John F. Barna Faculty Fellow

2001 Awarded by the Kelley School of Business at the University of Indiana, 2001 - 2002.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.