Biography

Professor Masaru "Macha" Suzuki received his B.A. from Studio Art at Azusa Pacific University and an MFA in Sculpture from Claremont Graduate University. Before arriving at LMU, he taught art and design at Azusa Pacific University, Cypress College, Norco College and LACHSA. Professor Suzuki recently returned from Tokyo where he exhibited his latest body of work in his second solo exhibition in Japan. His work, often autobiographical, deals with the notion of failure and the exploration, acceptance, and celebration of growth that results from failure. Professor Suzuki has exhibited his work for over a decade in solo exhibitions throughout the United States in galleries and museums including Laguna Art Museum and Vincent Price Art Museum.
