

Maggie Anderson

CEO and Cofounder at The Empowerment Experiment Foundation

Oak Park, IL, US

Sought-after speaker, who has appeared on CNN, MSNBC, Fox News, C-SPAN, PBS Newshour, and CBS Morning News, among other tv and radio shows

---

As CEO and cofounder of The Empowerment Experiment Foundation, Maggie Anderson has become the leader of a self-help economics movement that supports quality black businesses and urges consumers, especially other middle and upper class African Americans, to proactively and publicly support them. She has appeared on CNN, MSNBC, Fox News, and CBS Morning News, among many other national television and radio shows. She received her BA from Emory University and her JD and MBA from the University of Chicago. She lives in Oak Park, Illinois, with her husband, John, and their two daughters. Ted Gregory is a Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter for the Chicago Tribune.

---

Education/Learning, Research, Writing and Editing

---

Starting A Business, Small Business Ownership, Race and the Economy, African-American Businesses, A Call to Women: Find Your Cause, The Empowerment Experiment, Conscious Consumerism

---

American Program Bureau

---

The University of Chicago - Booth School of Business

Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) Economics, Strategy

University of Chicago Law School

JD Law

Emory University

BA Political Science

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.