

Martha Ginn, PhD

Professor at Augusta University

Augusta, GA, US

Dr. Martha Ginn is a political expert on the judicial process, constitutional law and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Biography

Ginn is a Professor of Political Science and Public Administration at Augusta University. She earned her PhD in American Politics from the University of South Carolina. Her research interests include judicial decision-making, public opinion of the judiciary, media coverage of elections, and the role of terrorism in voter turnout. Her work has been published in journals such as Public Opinion Quarterly, Journal of Politics, Justice Systems Journal, Political Research Quarterly, and Judicature. Dr. Ginn teaches undergraduate courses on Judicial Process, Constitutional Law, Mock Trial, American Government, and Research Methods. She also teaches courses on Administrative Law and Quantitative Methods in the Master of Public Administration program. She currently serves as the Internship Coordinator and Pre-Law advisor for the Department.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Politics, Judicial Politics, The U.S. Supreme Court, Constitutional Law, Polling

Affiliations

Georgia Political Science Association, Southern Political Science Association, Georgia Political Science Association Teaching and Learning Committee

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.