

Matthew (Matt) Andersson, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Sociology at Baylor University

Waco, TX, US

Expert on health inequality, focusing on educational and socioeconomic inequalities in mental and physical well-being

Biography

Dr. Matthew Andersson's research focuses on health inequality as it unfolds across the life course. Specifically, he researches educational and socioeconomic inequalities in mental and physical well-being as they relate to childhood, adolescent and adulthood factors. Specific themes in his recent and current work include health behaviors, chronic disease epidemiology, personal social networks, informal elder caregiving, comparative parenthood, parent-child emotional bonds, and public attitudes and reactions toward mental illness.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Writing and Editing, Health and Wellness, Health Care - Facilities, Health Care - Providers, Health Care - Services

Areas of Expertise

Parent-child Bonding, Comparative parenthood, Health Behaviors, Health inequality, Parent-child Bonding, Mental Health and SES, Caregiving for Elderly, Well-Being, Personal social networks, Parent-Child Emotional Bonds

Education

Yale University

Postdoctoral Fellow

University of Iowa

Ph.D. Sociology

University of Iowa

M.A. Sociology

Knox College

B.A. Chemistry & Psychology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.