

Matthew Turk

Assistant Professor of Business Law and Ethics at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business

Indianapolis, IN, US

Professor Turk focuses on financial regulation, securities law and international economic law.

Biography

Matthew Turk is an Assistant Professor of Business Law and Ethics at Indiana University's Kelley School of Business. His scholarship focuses on financial regulation, securities law, and international economic law, and has been published in a number of law journals, including: the Washington & Lee Law Review, Columbia Business Law Review, University of Kansas Law Review, and Berkeley Journal of International Law. Before joining the Kelley School, Prof. Turk completed a federal judicial clerkship at the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and practiced as a corporate litigator at the law firm Sullivan & Cromwell. He is a magna cum laude graduate of the New York University School of Law.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

International Economic Law and Policy, Financial Regulation, Securities Law

Education

New York University School of Law
J.D.

University of California San Diego
B.A.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.