Young, Dynamic, Successful, Award-Winning Litigator and Trial Attorney Ready to Speak, Teach and Motivate!

Biography

Matthew Paul Krupnick co-owns and operates the uniquely successful general practice, civil litigation law firm, KRUPNICK & KRUPNICK, A Professional Law Corporation, with his mentor and best friend, his mom, Vivian Krupnick. The uniquely successful and talented team are taking the litigation world by storm, with a recent verdict after a bench trial for over one million dollars (including attorneys fees and costs), there is already much buzz about the firm's continued success as they fight to restore the good name of good lawyers. Located in prime area of Down Town Los Angeles, in the famous "Gas Tower Building", Matthew is looking forward to fighting for clients in serious personal injury cases, employment litigation matters, family law battles, contract disputes, and much more. With an 5 years in a row of the prestigious "Rising Star" and "Top Young Lawyer" in Southern California awardslawyers (and rumors of a virtually unheard of fifth year in a row win), as well as being voted one of only two people in Los Angeles to be deemed the "best and brightest litigators" under the age of 40 by the National LGBT Civil Rights organization, Matthew continues to keep his track record of success and truly happy clients. Despite a busy trial calendar and time consuming cases throughout his practice, he still provides pro bono mediations, teaches courses for high school kids interested in being lawyers, is a member of Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles, California Employment Lawyers Association, the American Bar Association, and continues to blog for various forums, including as a contributing editor for world renowned attorney website, AVVO.COM in their famous blog "Lawyernomics" where you can find many of his published materials. This dynamic mother and son duo always give each case every resource it needs to achieve optimal results for every client. Whether its drafting a contract or a will, or litigating through trial or arbitration, the commitment to ensuring that each and every client is more than satisfied with the Firm's results is stronger than ever. The Firm ensures that each client has constant access to the attorneys or other staff so that all their questions and concerns throughout any legal process are answer. More info at www.KrupnickLawFirm.com Matthew speaks on countless legal hot topics and real life wisdom about the law, as well as his vast training and multiple black belts in martial arts, motivational empowerment and more.
