Mengchuan Wang

Post-Doctoral Fellow in Finance at Emory University, Goizueta Business School

ATLANTA, GA, US

Biography

Mengchuan (Kitty) Wang joined Goizueta Business School as a Postdoctoral Fellow in the Finance Area after completing her PhD in finance from the University of Melbourne in 2022. Before that, she obtained her dual master's degree in finance from Washington University in St. Louis and Singapore Management University and her bachelor's degree from the Renmin University of China majoring in finance. Her research interests are in fields of empirical asset pricing, fund performance evaluation, and machine learning. She is among the first to analyze mutual fund skills with machine learning techniques, which she uses to address model mis-specification problems associated with traditional studies. Her machine learning based approach identifies persistent timing skills for mutual funds and leads to a measure that can help investors to select good funds. Wang is a cat lover, and she likes to spend time meditating, singing, and dancing.

Areas of Expertise

Empirical Asset Pricing, Mutual Fund Performance Evaluation, Machine Learning, Textual Analysis

Education

University of Melbourne
PhD Finance

Washington University
Master of Science Finance

Singapore Management University
Master of Science Finance

Renmin University of China
Bachelor Finance

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.