

Michael Steiner, M.D., M.P.H.

Division Chief, General Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine; Director of Outreach and Network Development, Department of Pediatrics at UNC-Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill, NC, US

Research efforts include engaging residents in research, obesity, medical complexity in children, gastroenteritis.

Michael Steiner, MD is an Associate Professor of Pediatrics in the Division of General Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill.. His research interests focus on engaging residents in research and improvement efforts in outpatient setting, the use of diagnostic tests, and improving education in outpatient care, children with medical complexity and obesity. He has interests in QI and operational efficiency in addition to the social context of health for children

Education/Learning, Research

Pediatrics, Adolescent Medicine, Medical Education, Outpatient Setting, Diagnostic Tests, Education in Outpatient Care

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, The Gillings School of Global Public Health
M.P.H. Public Health

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Residency Training Internal Medicine / Pediatrics

Temple University School of Medicine
M.D. Medicine

Albright College
B.S. Undergraduate Studies

Best Doctors in America (2009 - Present)
Approximately 5% of physicians listed.

Academic Career Leadership Academy in Medicine Program (2012)
Nominated by Department and accepted by School of Medicine into the first class of this program. One of 12 faculty that were in the inaugural class.

Albright College Young Alumni Award (2007)
Given to 1 young alumnus for outstanding service in career or to the college.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.