

Michelle Brownlee

Director, Policy at Smart Prosperity Institute/University of Ottawa

Ottawa, ON, CA

Michelle works at the intersection of public policy, economics and the environment

Biography

Michelle Brownlee has been with Smart Prosperity Institute (previously Sustainable Prosperity) since 2013. Immediately before joining SPI, Michelle taught Economics at Mount Royal University in Calgary. Prior to that she spent over 10 years in the federal government advising senior decision makers on energy, resource and climate change policy and programs, mostly at Natural Resources Canada and the Privy Council Office. She holds a BA from Mount Allison University and an MA in Economics from Queens University. Michelle has published peer-reviewed journal articles on climate change and is a lifelong believer that individual consumer actions make a meaningful difference.

Areas of Expertise

Climate Change, Environmental Economics, Green Growth, Environment & Economy, Clean Innovation, Natural Capital

Education

Mount Allison University

BA Economics

Queen's University

MA Economics

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.