Dynamic and engaging is my description of Monique Fluker. Ms. Fluker gave a short speech during a company event. It was a short speech but since the duration does not define quality of a good speaker, she provided us with a thought-provoking experience. The presentation was entertaining, uplifting, and packed with relevant information, one to be remembered. Monique Fluker's presentation became the talk of the event. Once you have heard Monique you will know she has a gift of speaking to an audience. "
