

Nick Drydakis

Director of the Centre for Pluralist Economics (CPE) at Anglia Ruskin University

Cambridge, , GB

Nick is spokesperson at the IZA World of Labor for areas such as inequality, poverty & discrimination.

Nick is the founding Director of the Centre for Pluralist Economics (CPE). He is spokesperson at the IZA World of Labor for a series of areas such as inequality, poverty and discrimination. In addition, he is Cluster Leader of the Global Labor Organization. Nick has developed and offered credit eligible courses which have been delivered to economics students from Harvard University, the University of Pennsylvania, Princeton University, the University of California, Berkeley, Stanford University and Yale University. Nick has published in international journals such as: Labour Economics, Industrial Relations: A Journal of Economy and Society, Journal of Economics, Journal of Population Economics, Review of Economics of the Household, Social Science and Medicine, Journal of Vocational Behaviour, Human Relations, European Journal of Health Economics, Economics Letters.

Labour Markets, Economics of Inequality, Labour Economics, Population Economics, Economic Crises

Research Fellow, Institute for Labor Economics (Germany), Spokesperson, IZA World of Labor (Germany), Fellow and Cluster Leader, Global Labor Organisation (Germany), Academic Expert, Centre for Science and Policy, University of Cambridge (UK), Section Editor, Handbook of Labor, Human Resources and Population Economics (Springer), Guest Editor, International Journal of Manpower (Emerald), Senior Fellow, Higher Education Academy (UK)

University of Crete

Ph.D. Economics

Athens University of Economics and Business

M.Sc. Economics

University of Crete

B.Sc. Economics

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.