Nigel Collin CSP - Helping businesses generate profitable ideas

---

Biography

As founder and CEO of 'Thinkativity' Nigel has spent nearly two decades on the 'ideas' front line, helping companies grow by pushing the boundaries to generate ideas that outpace competition, fuel innovation and boost profits. He has consulted and advised Ministers of Parliament, CEO's, and Entrepreneurs on how to think more creatively to generate profitable ideas. More importantly he understands that all ideas are not created equal. Tomorrow's successful organisations know this, because it's no longer a case of the big taking the small, it's the fast taking the slow. In today's world exponential business growth is most often achieved by ambitious and viable ideas that create market disruption. As a result Nigel has developed a proven system to facilitate bankable ideas He sat on the roundtable for the Queensland Government's 'Year of Creativity', lectured at Griffith University and a number of companies in a myriad of industries including IT, Events, Marketing, Finance, Pharmaceuticals, Government and Telecommunications have benefited from his experience and expertise. A recognized thought leader in terms of creativity and innovation he is author of two books, a TEDx-er, and has travelled the globe helping business leaders and their people think more creatively and find ideas that are valuable. He recently launched 'Ingenious Oz Project' a new initiative to help Australian business pursue their ideas In his creative life, he was Show Director for Australia's largest-ever corporate event and has worked on a multitude of corporate and public events including the 2000 Sydney Olympics and Paralympics. For 9 years Nigel owned and ran Absurd Entertainment - a Creative Entertainment design company and has studied organizational creativity at The Walt Disney Company. Nigel is a CSP, (Certified Professional Speaker) the highest designation offered by the National Speakers Association.
