

Noriko Sato Ward, MBA

Instructor, College of Business Administration at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Assistant Director, D.K. Kim Foundation Business for Good Program

Biography

Noriko Sato Ward is a member of the instructional team for BCOR 1910 Business for Good, a required course in the College of Business Administration. She also serves as assistant director of the D.K. Kim Foundation Business for Good Program where she acts as a liaison for partnerships within LMU and organizations and universities around the world. Noriko serves on the board of LMU's Asian American Pacific Islander Faculty and Staff Association and has a strong commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion and accessibility. Noriko was raised in Japan and the U.S. with a deep understanding in nuances of conducting international business and has deep non-profit leadership experience. She holds an MBA in marketing and finance from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and a B.A. in government from Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts.

Areas of Expertise

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, Marketing, Business for Good

Education

Northwestern University

MBA Marketing

Smith College

B.A. Government

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.