Biography

Ogun Holder is an ordained Unity Minister [2011]. His many titles include speaker, teacher, author, radio show host, blogger, musician, husband, parent, social media consultant, and self-proclaimed geek. He has written articles for Daily Word, Unity Magazine, and Contact Magazine. His first full-length book Rants To Revelations will be published in Fall 2012. He co-hosts Unity Family Matters a Unity Online Radio show about conscious parenting with his wife Rev. Jennifer Holder. A popular and engaging speaker, Ogun has been invited to speak at churches and spiritual centers across the country. He is the Senior Minister and Executive Director of Unity For All, an alternative ministry on a mission of Global Transformation through Spiritual Education, Empowerment, and Engagement. Originally from Barbados, Ogun moved to the USA in 1994 to pursue a degree in Music Therapy. As a Music Therapist he worked successfully with a variety of populations in schools, hospitals, adult day-care facilities, and his own private practice. He is also an experienced church music director, having served multiple Unity communities. Ogun currently lives in the Washington DC metro area with his wife and their daughter.
