

Paul Fritz

Associate Professor of Political Science at Hofstra University

Long Island, NY, US

Professor Fritz specializes in international relations, with concentrations on international security and US foreign and defense policy.

---

Biography

Paul Fritz (B.A. University of Dayton, 1997; Ph.D. Ohio State University, 2006) is an Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science. Dr. Fritz specializes in international politics, security studies, international organization, and U.S. foreign and defense policy. Dr. Fritz has published in the Journal of Politics, International Interactions, Foreign Policy Analysis and other venues on alliance formation, democratic imposition, and UN Security Council reform, among other issues. He also co-edited a volume on the foreign policy of the George W. Bush administration. Currently, Dr. Fritz's main research project examines how defeated states respond to war-ending settlements, with application to Russia in the post-Cold War era. Dr. Fritz teaches International Politics, American Foreign Policy, Technology and Defense Policy, Terrorism in World Politics, Nuclear Weapons and International Politics and other courses. He received the Teacher of the Year award for the Kalikow School of Government, Public Policy, and International Affairs in 2019 and Hofstra University's Mentor of the Year award in 2016.

---

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

---

Areas of Expertise

Foreign Policy, Political Science, Terrorism, International Security, International Relations

---

Education

Ohio State University

Ph. D. Political Science

Ohio State University

M.A. Political Science

University of Dayton

B.A. Political Science

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.