

Paul C. Rosier, PhD

Professor of History; Director, Albert Lepage Center for History in the Public Interest | College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Villanova University

Villanova , PA, US

Paul C. Rosier, PhD, is an expert in American history, global environmental history, and American environmental history.

Biography

Paul Rosier is a Professor of History and the Director of the Albert Lepage Center for History in the Public Interest, which is founded on the belief that historical scholarship and historical perspective are central when examining contemporary global issues.

Areas of Expertise

History, Sustainability Studies, Global Environmental History, American History, American Environmental History, History of American Capitalism, Native American History

Education

The University of Rochester
PhD

Hobart College
BA

Select Accomplishments

Labriola Center American Indian National Book Award for Serving Their Country: American Indian Politics and Patriotism in the Twentieth Century

John Topham and Susan Redd Butler Faculty Research Award
2009

2007 Arrell Gibson Award
Western History Association, Best Essay on the History of Native Americans

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.