Lead a Life of Discovery!

Biography

As a speaker, I want to help audiences Lead a Life of Discovery where passions and actions are in alignment. It is only then that a person can be at their best, their most effective, and most productive. It is here that they can add the most value to others. My topics focus primarily on personal growth, leadership, connecting with others, building influence, and developing a heart for service. My style mixes motivational with informational, keeping the audience involved in the topic and spurring towards action. For over 25 years I have helped people become more effective through training on career and personal development, technology, and leadership. My success depends entirely on YOUR success!
