

Paul Steege, PhD

Associate Professor of History | College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Villanova University
Villanova, PA, US

Paul Steege, PhD, is a go-to expert on twentieth-century Germany and researches the history of violence in everyday life.

Biography

Twentieth-century Germany saw some of the most seismic and world-changing events in modern history. From unification and empire to integration into the European Union, Dr. Steege has an intimate understanding of the cultural influences and events that shaped and secured Germany's enduring place of international importance. Dr. Steege's areas of specialty include the history of Berlin, life in Nazi Germany and during World War II, as well as the Berlin Blockade and Airlift. Steege has recently appeared in U.S. News and World Report.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

World Cup, Cold War, History of Violence, History of Soccer, Nazi Germany, 20th-Century Berlin, German History

Education

University of Chicago
PhD

University of Chicago
MA

Princeton University
AB

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.