

Phillip Coule, MD

Vice President and Chief Medical Officer, AU Health System & Associate Dean for Clinical Affairs at Augusta University

Augusta, GA, US

Phillip Coule is an expert in COVID-19 testing, hospital quality & safety, emergency medicine, disaster preparedness, and GRACHIE.

Biography

Phillip Coule, MD serves as vice president and chief medical officer for Augusta University Health System, and associate dean for clinical affairs for the Medical College of Georgia at Augusta University. Coule is an expert in emergency medicine, disaster preparedness and mass casualty triage, and he serves as Medical Director for AirLife Georgia's helicopter transport service and is on the boards of the National Disaster Life Support Foundation. He is also director of the hospital Emergency Communications Center and helps coordinate the hospital's emergency response during disasters and mass casualty events. Coule received his medical degree from MCG, where he also completed his residency in emergency medicine. He also earned a Master of Business Administration from the University of Tennessee.

Areas of Expertise

Coronavirus, Mass Casualty Triage, Emergency Medicine, Hospital Quality and Safety, Disaster Preparedness, GRACHIE

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.