

Professor Jon Yorke

Professor of Human Rights and Director of the Centre for Human Rights at Birmingham City University

Birmingham, , GB

Jon Yorke's main interests include the United Nations, European Human Rights, Capital Punishment, Legal Theory and the Temporality of Law.

Biography

Jon Yorke is the Professor of Human Rights in the School of Law and is the Director of the Centre for Human Rights. His qualifications include LL.B. (Hons) (BCU), LL.M. and Ph.D. (Warwick). He currently teaches LL.B. International Human Rights and LL.M. Human Rights in the Wider World. Jon's main interests include the United Nations, European Human Rights, English and European Medical Law, Capital Punishment, Legal Theory and the Temporality of Law. He welcomes applications for doctoral research in these areas.

Areas of Expertise

European Human Rights, Legal Research, Public Law, Capital Punishment, Legal Trials, Legal Theory, English and European Medical Law

Affiliations

Member, Foreign and Commonwealth Office, Death Penalty Expert Group and the FCO Pro Bono Lawyer's Panel, Consultant, the United Nations Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, the European Union and the Council of Europe, Member, the International Academic Network for the Abolition of the Death Penalty, Teaching Team Member, the internship training programme, Amicus

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.