

Ric Cuming, EdD, MSN, RN

Chief Operating Officer at ChristianaCare

Wilmington, DE, US

Ric Cuming is responsible for professional practice, standards, research, outcomes and workforce in acute care and home health settings.

Biography

Richard G. Cuming, EdD, MSN, RN, NEA-BC, FAAN, is the Chief Operating Officer at ChristianaCare. his role as COO, Cuming oversees the delivery of efficient and fiscally responsible system operations. He also works with other leaders to ensure high-quality and safe patient care. A highly experienced and nationally respected nurse leader, Ric has more than 35 years of health care experience. Cuming was inducted into the American Academy of Nursing in 2016. American Academy of Nursing Fellows are recognized among the most respected nursing leaders in education, management, practice and research. On January 11, 2021, Cuming administered the second dose of the COVID-19 vaccine to then President-elect Joe Biden.

Areas of Expertise

Operations Management, Nursing Policy, Strategy, Leadership, Nursing Procedures

External Service & Affiliations

American Nurses Credentialing Center: Advanced Nurse Executive, Association of Perioperative Registered Nurses Foundation: Board of Trustees, DAISY Foundation: Board Member, American Nurses Association: Member, American Organization of Nurse Leaders: Member

Education

Florida International University

PhD Adult Education and Human Resource Development with a Minor in Advanced Nursing Administration

University of Miami

MSc Science in Nursing

University of Ottawa

BSc Science in Nursing

Selected Honors & Awards

American Academy of Nursing
Inducted

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation
Executive, Nurse Fellowship Program

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.