

Ricardo Arturo Machón, PhD

Professor of Psychology | Psychological Science at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Co-director & Project Director Ronald E. McNair Postbaccalaureate Achievement Program

---

Biography

Dr. Ricardo Arturo Machón is a clinical psychologist and he has taught at Loyola Marymount University since 1986. He has over 20 years of administrative experience and he is deeply committed to undergraduate education and mentorship, including undergraduate student research. Dr. Machón has authored over 30 professional publications in the area of schizophrenia and psychopathology and has presented research findings on prenatal neurodevelopment of psychological disorders at numerous international and national professional meetings. His most recent area of scholarship is the integration of pedagogy, psychological science and Ignatian spirituality.

---

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Mental Health Care

---

Areas of Expertise

Higher Education, Psychology, Neurodevelopmental Basis of Schizophrenia, Psychiatric Epidemiology, Clinical Psychology, Psychopathology

---

Affiliations

Association for Psychological Science, Alpha Sigma Nu, International Federation of Catholic University's (IFCU) Psychology Sectorial group (IFCUP), Western Psychological Association

---

Education

University of Southern California

Ph.D. Clinical Psychology

University of Southern California

M.A. Clinical Psychology

University of Southern California

B.A. Psychology and French

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.