

Robert Taylor, Ph.D.

Dean | College of Psychology and Liberal Arts at Florida Tech

Melbourne, FL, US

Dr. Taylor's research focuses on 19th- and 20th-century America, the American South, U.S. military history, and 20th-century Europe.

About

Dr. Robert Taylor's research focuses on 19th- and 20th-century America, the American South, Florida history, U.S. military history, the history of the Space Age, and 20th-century Europe. Dr. Taylor is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Florida Humanities Council. He is also president emeritus of the Florida Historical Society, an advisory board member for H-Florida, and a board official in the Selective Service System. Dr. Taylor resides in Palm Bay and St. Simons Island, Georgia, with his wife Virginia and a house full of pets.

Areas of Expertise

History of the Space Age, Florida's Governors, D-Day, American Military Leadership, Civil War, World War II, Governor Dan McCarty, Ernest Hemingway

Affiliations

Florida Humanities Council : Board of Directors Member, Florida Historical Society : President Emeritus, H-Florida : Advisory Board Member

Education

University of South Florida
M.A.

University of South Florida
B.A.

Florida State University
Ph.D. American History

Accomplishments

Kerry Bruce Clark Award for Excellence in Teaching
2003-2004

Florida Tech Alumni Association Award
2009

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.