

Robert Walker

Professor at University of Florida

Gainesville, FL, US

Robert Walker is a human geographer with training in statistics and economics who studies land cover change processes.

Biography

Robert Walker is a human geographer with training in statistics and economics who studies land cover change processes, especially tropical deforestation. His research brings a spatial and human geographic focus to bear on processes of environmental change.

Areas of Expertise

Land Change, The Amazon, Latin American Studies, Land Use Change Modeling, Geospatial Analysis and Techniques, Land-Climate Interactions, Global Environmental and Social Change, Nature-Society Studies

Affiliations

Association of American Geographers : Member

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.