Certified Professional Coach

Coaching is the culmination of leadership, knowledge, accountability and gratitude; all of these powerful forces act as one in the coaching process as the client feels the genuine care and concern the coach maintains as the relationship develops. Coaching is endorsing (not teaching) individuals to achieve at their absolute best; this is done by measuring, from a third party vantage point, the gaps between actual performance and desired performance. Then offering strategies and tools to facilitate

Testimonials

Bryan Mason

We are working on rehabbing, lease optioning, and selling a 200 unit condo community here in Columbus Ohio. Kristina Mason (My Wife) and I run 5 companies here in Columbus and a lot of our success is devoted to your coaching in the very beginning of all of this crazy world of business. We still have a lot to learn though. My conversations with you helped to shape my world as it currently is. I reviewed our notes many times. I hope to see you sometime in the future Ron.

The presentation that Ron gave was full of tangible information that I can apply in my business today. Personally I liked it and thought you were great. I liked the real world examples and stories and look forward to hearing the amazing responses from the attendees as well. I look forward to our continued relationship.

?I highly recommend Ron to anyone. I cannot say enough about his program. I am excited to hear about all of the lives that Ron will touch in the future. I can honestly say that he touched the lives of my group and mine as well.?

"Ron was an amazing speaker at the launch event for my company, he really touched a lot of my guests. They were all captivated by what he was saying and kept their attention. Ron was also extremely easy to work with, got straight to the point, didn't waste anytime, did what I had requested, touched on topics that I wanted, he was just amazing! He is a very kind soul and I would recommend him to any and everyone he can definitely prepare his presentations to fit your needs no matter what they are! Loved him at my very first event and cant wait to have him at more."

Mr. Broussard spoke to our group (Georgia Chapter of the National Institute of Governmental Purchasers, GANIGP) at 8:30 AM. Getting people up and moving at that hour is definitely difficult, but Ron made it happen and for me his presentation was one of the highlights of our conference. He used music, which we could all relate to, to get us out of the Monday morning blahs and into the moment. I don't usually care much for motivational speakers because they don't have an impact on me, but Ron's approach and his message hit home for me. I would highly recommend having him at another of our events, and would recommend him to anyone who wants to start their conference off on a great note."
