

Rosamaria Alamo

Clinical Associate Professor of Social Work at USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work

Los Angeles, CA, US

Dr. Alamo specializes in social work with children, youth, and families and integrated behavioral health.

Biography

Dr. Alamo is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with a Pupil Personnel Services Credential. She has over 25 years of experience in social work serving children, youth and families in diverse settings to include schools, community based organizations, public child welfare and health care. Her career has focused on promoting the well-being, health, and mental health of vulnerable populations along with building the appropriate infrastructures that will support them. Dr. Alamo currently co-leads an innovative initiative that brings together law enforcement and social work professionals to create meaningful change in regards to how these two fields collaborate to support communities in need. She is the Region I Director for NASW CA-Chapter.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Forensic Social Work, School Social Work, Individual and Family Counseling, Building Organizational and Human Capacity, Social Work, Crisis Intervention, Child Abuse and Neglect, Establishing Collaborations/Partnership between Social Work and Law Enforcement, Integrated Behavioral Health

Affiliations

NASW, The Network for Social Work Management

Education

University of Southern California
MA Social Work

University of Southern California
BA Psychology

Arizona State University
Doctor in Behavioral Health (DBH), 2020

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.