Sarah Young

Principal Librarian at Carnegie Mellon University

Pittsburgh, PA, US

Sarah Young is a social sciences librarian, providing teaching and research support.

Biography

Sarah Young is a social sciences librarian, providing teaching and research support to the Heinz College, the departments of Statistics & Data Science, and Information Systems and the Institute for Politics and Strategy. She holds graduate degrees in library and information science and development and international relations. She teaches workshops on tools for citation management and data cleaning. In addition, Young provides methodological expertise for evidence synthesis (such as systematic and scoping reviews) in the social sciences, conducts research on evidence synthesis methods and develops and conducts evidence synthesis training locally and abroad. Young is a co-convener for the Campbell Collaboration's Information Retrieval Methods Group.

Industry Expertise

Public Policy, Political Organization

Areas of Expertise

Information Systems, Social & Decision Sciences, Statistics, Reference, Public Policy

Education

University of Pittsburgh
M.L.I.S.

Aalborg University
M.Sc Development and International Relations

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.