

Mary Ann Sevier

Associate Professor of Practice Emerita in Accounting at Emory University, Goizueta Business School

Atlanta, GA, US

Biography

Mary has taught at the Goizueta Business School since 1996. Before beginning an academic career, she worked in public accounting, private industry and consulting. Mary's areas of specialization are financial and managerial accounting. Mary has substantial accounting and financial management experience in the real estate and construction industries. She also has interests in financial reporting, earnings management, financial planning, business valuation and personal financial planning related issues. Mary has consulted with and made presentations to senior executives of privately held companies in the Atlanta area, primarily on accounting and financial management related topics. She has developed and taught education programs on financial management related topics for executives in the real estate and construction industries.

Industry Expertise

Business Services, Financial Services, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Financial Accounting, Managerial Accounting, Financial Reporting, Earnings Management, Financial Planning, Business Valuation

Education

Spring Hill College
Bachelor's Degree Science

Emory University
MBA

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.