Shaun McCloskey is a seasoned real estate investor, author and coach. He's been investing full time for over a decade, has completed somewhere north of 300+ successful real estate deals. He's done about every kind of deal you can imagine, and has been especially recognized for his expertise in the pre-foreclosure arena. Although by the world's standards Shaun has been considered to be a very successful real estate investor, author and real estate coach, in 2007 he realized that he was working far too much and was consumed by his real estate investing business. But you'll learn how and why things radically changed for him for the better when he learned and started applying the concepts and principals we'll be cracking open together.
