

Sreenivas Kamma

Associate Professor of Finance at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business

Bloomington, IN, US

Sreenivas Kamma's research focuses on the contractual relationship between stockholders, managers and its effects on managerial decisions.

Biography

Professor Sreenivas Kamma's research interests include the nature of the optimal contractual relationship between stockholders and managers and its effect on managerial decisions. Currently empirically investigating the effect of recent innovative defensive strategies such as selective repurchase and poison pills on the market for corporate control. He is also involved in studies of the actual, rather than intended, benefits of administered protection against foreign imports.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Capital Markets, Investment Management

Areas of Expertise

Finance, Contractual Relationships, Stockholder Relations, Foreign Imports, Management Relations, Business Management

Secondary Titles

Chairperson Finance Department, Arthur M. Weimer Faculty Fellow

Education

University of Buffalo

Ph.D.

University of Buffalo

M.B.A.

Birla Institute of Technology and Science

M.M.S

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.