Testimonials

Wendy Lipton-Dibner

?Too often we find that experts are either great writers OR great speakers ? rarely do we find both in one incredibly talented and passionate person. Stefan Swanepoel is that rare breed of professional that gives you the total package. A New York Times best selling author and a dynamic and inspiring speaker ? read him, bring him into your organization, hear him speak?but whatever you do, make sure you experience the brilliance that is Stefan.?

Barbara Safran

?Stefan?s ability to impart important information with enthusiasm and passion and his delightful accent makes him one of the best speakers you can have. From his Real Estate trends speeches to his new speech about Surviving the Serengeti. It?s an excellent way to look at teamwork and creating synergy. I would recommend him to anyone who wants to work with a diverse team of leaders and anything else he sets his mind to speak on because I know he will be fabulous. You will want to listen to Stefan over and over.?

Ron Peltier

?Stefan is an outstanding speaker and he has a profound grasp of the Industry. He has great insight into our business that can be helpful going forward.?

Russ Bergeron

?MRED was pleased to host the 2010 CMLS Conference. When setting up the agenda, it was easy selecting a keynote speaker ? Stefan Swanepoel. As a prolific author and futurist, Stefan, above anyone else, has always proven to be the person with the right message for the times. He pulls no punches, yet always keeps his audiences entertained and hanging onto every word with his spot-on insights and observations. If Stefan had been the only speaker on our program the attendees would still have gone home happy.?

Nagesh Ramamurthy

"It was an inspiring and motivating talk, and the important differentiator was how Stefan gave the analogy of the seven animals and how each of us is like one of these - he had an interesting quiz called ?What Animal Am I?? The speaker's clear diction and his passion for wildlife and animals, in addition to his conviction about fellow beings, all created a great impression on me, so much so that I have now heard this talk three times! I am hoping to show this to my colleagues at work."

Terry Watson

?The majority of speakers speak about what they have read ? Stefan is where you go to find out what is GOING to happen. Normally to meet someone of Stefan?s GENIUS would require a high level security clearance ? he provides gut wrenching, real-world content, in a hilarious way while putting out enough passion and energy to power a small country.?
